

April 25, 1941.

Mr. T. J. Young,
1237 Pratt St.,
Wichita, Kan.

Dear Young:

Mr. Manley has just told me of his promise to you to have me write you about a loan of $100.00. I wished you had discussed it with me in New York. My experience to date with advancing money to ball players has been very unfortunate. For sometime now I have adopted a policy of no advances under any conditions. I have even discouraged the drawing of money on my Ball Club, insisting that the men receive their full pay on the 1st and 15th. I plan this year not to be so strict with that regulation, if they want to draw money, they will be free to do so. As for advancing you the $100.00 if you had worked for me and some emergency had arisen, I might have stretched a point to accommodate you. If there is an emergency and you can borrow the money some where, I will guarantee to pay it back after you have played with the Team for a while. I am sure you could not possibly be pressed just returning from Puerto Rico. Sorry not to be able to accommodate you, but it is definitely very poor policy, as I said before my experiences have been very bitter.

Hope you had a pleasant trip home. Will look to hear from you soon.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ